Benefits Buddy
Choose how to read

Welcome to Benefits Buddy.

Benefits are money from the government to help people.

To get started, choose how you want to read.

Standard

Read information in the usual way.

Choose Standard >

Easy read

Read short sentences with pictures to help you.

Choose Easy read >

You can ask someone you trust to read with you.

Help with this information >

Change reading format

This is information, not advice.
It does not tell you if you can get benefits.

Benefits Buddy
Easy read

Find information you can understand

Find out about benefits. These are money from the government to help people.

Where in the UK do you live?

Benefits and laws can be different in each part of the UK.

Choose one place below.

- England Selected
- Scotland
- Wales
- Northern Ireland

What do you want to know?

Type a word or a topic in the box.

Search for information

Type here

For example: disability benefits.

Search information >

Or choose a topic from a list.

Browse benefits and rights >

You can ask someone you trust to read with you.

Help with this information >

Change reading format

This is information, not advice.
It does not tell you if you can get benefits.

Home | Browse | Help

Benefits Buddy
Easy read

Benefits and rights

Choose a topic below.

Each guide shows you where to find official information.

Your location: England

Change where you live

Disability benefits

Government money to help disabled people.

Disability rights

Your rights help protect you from unfair treatment.

Work and employment

Employment means having a paid job.

Find help at work.

Care and everyday support

Find help with daily life, such as washing or getting dressed.

Decisions and appeals

An appeal is asking for a decision to be looked at again.

You can ask someone you trust to read with you.

Help with this information >

Change reading format

This is information, not advice.
It does not tell you if you can get benefits.

Home | Browse | Help

Benefits Buddy
Easy read

Back to benefits and rights

Your location: England

Change where you live

Disability benefits

Disability benefits are government money to help disabled people.

1. Read the official guide

GOV.UK is the UK government website.

For England, start here.

Read the full page for the benefit you want to know about.

2. Check the place

Check that the page is for the part of the UK where you live.

3. Check how to apply

Apply means asking to get a benefit.

Follow the latest steps on the official page.

Check what you need to send with your form.

Official source

GOV.UK has official information about disability benefits.

This takes you to the GOV.UK website.

Visit GOV.UK >

Need help understanding this?

Eligibility means whether you can get a benefit.

Use our eligibility checking tool >

You can ask someone you trust to read with you.

Help with this information >

Change reading format

This is information, not advice.
It does not tell you if you can get benefits.

Home | Browse | Help